

americans
celebrate their
heritage by lighting
fireworks.
the scots toss
telephone poles
as high as they can.

Welcome to one of the largest Scottish gathering in the Southeast, where clans from across the nation come to celebrate their proud heritage. And to make us all wish we were from wee old Scotland.

Expect bagpipes, lots of bagpipes, along with the EUSPBA Southern Branch Pipe Band Championship. Enjoy the First Annual Border Collie Trials, a parade down Main Street, a Ceilidh featuring Albannach, Hunting McLeod, and Emerald Rose, along with a Wee Scotland Village for kids, and, of course, the ever-popular Highland athletic Southeast Championship.
